By RAY CORNELIUS · AUG 27, 2016

Make sure you all tune into my new arts & entertainment radio program, "UPFRONT Inside Atlanta's Entertainment Industry." It airs Saturday, August 27 at 9 a.m.

This week's guests include actor Lamman Rucker from OWN's hit series "Greenleaf." He will be on to chat about the show and his new film, "Service to Man," which premieres during the 2016 BronzeLens Film Festival.

My second guest is Anthony Faulkner, inspirational singer and songwriter. He stops by to talk about his new album Guardian Angel. My last guest is Visual Artist, Fahamu Pecou. He stops by to chat about his new exhibition "Do or Die," which opened August 26 at the Halsey Institute of Contemporary Art in Charleston, SC.

Ray Cornelius talks with Lamman Rucker, Anthony Faulkner and Fahamu Pecou on UPFRONT on WCLK 8/27/16.

"UPFRONT" takes an in-depth look at Atlanta's arts and entertainment scene including TV, film, theater, music and more. Each Saturday, I will be conducting one-on-one interviews with all of the major players and the behind-the-scenes influencers that make Atlanta, the new Hollywood South.

The show is also sponsored by the 2016 BronzeLens Film Festival.
